Eugène Henri CAUCHOIS 1850-1911

Eugène-Henri Cauchois was born in the city of Rouen on the 14th of February 1850.

He developed his artistic knowledge under the master painters Ferdinand Duboc and Alexandre Cabanel. His masterpieces of art reflect a strong influence from the great impressionist artists of his time. Cauchois exhibited frequently at the Paris Salon and received several awards at the exhibitions including a 3rd place medal in 1898, a bronze medal in 1900, and a 2nd place medal in 1904. He continued to paint until his death in Paris on the 11th of October 1911.

Museology

Nowadays, masterpieces of art of Eugène-Henri Cauchois can be seen in France principally at the Louvre, at the museum of Perpignan and at the museum of Rouen.
